Race + Equity + Wellbeing Spring Series

Presented by

• Campus Wellbeing and Education
• University Human Resources
Race + Equity + Wellbeing Program

Webinars
• Expert panelists will gather to engage in discourse regarding topics of Race, Equity, and Wellbeing
• There is no formal Q&A - but audience members are encouraged to use Q&A function throughout the session and engage in conversation with other audience members using the “chat” function

Discussion Groups
• Led by trained facilitators, these important dialogues allow participants to engage with other staff and faculty
• Reactions, stories, plans for action, and honest reflection are encouraged
• Note: Webinar attendance is NOT required for the discussion groups
Sick and Tired of Being Sick and Tired: When To Stay and Fight for Change, and When To Move On

Program Manager
Diane Yaris, MSW
Senior Employee Development Partner
Learning & Organizational Development, University Human Resources

Event Producer
Nicole Saulnier, MSIO
Senior Organizational Development Partner
Learning & Organizational Development, University Human Resources

Moderator
Quade French, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist and Consultant
Campus Wellbeing & Education
Sick and Tired of Being Sick and Tired: When To Stay and Fight for Change, and When To Move On

Panelist
Parveen Parmar
Chief of the Division of Global Emergency Medicine at USC Keck School of Medicine

Panelist
Ilene Rosenstein
Associate Vice Provost, Campus Wellbeing and Education

Panelist
Francille Wilson
Associate Professor of American Studies and Ethnicity and History
Spring Series – Connections Discussion Sessions

Led by skilled facilitators, the Connections Discussion Sessions allow participants to engage in a safe, confidential space with other staff and faculty to:

- Come together in solidarity around participants’ lived experiences at the intersections of race, equity, and wellbeing
- Actively connect the content of the panel discussions with their own experiences and sense of culture at USC
- Work together to turn ideas into action in their departments and communities
- Explore available resources at USC to support an anti-racist community

Importantly, the discussion groups are not:

- Recorded in any way
- A place where BIPOC and other marginalized folks are expected to relive trauma for the educational benefit of others
- A substitute for therapy or counseling
- A formal investigatory body
- Webinar attendance is NOT required for the discussion groups

Visit our web page: http://employees.usc.edu/employee-events/race-equity-wellbeing/
Center for Work and Family Life

CWFL staff remain available to help with mental health concerns during the coronavirus pandemic. Highly-trained clinicians can help you with well-being, stress, anxiety, and other issues. Phone lines are open and remote sessions can be scheduled by Zoom or teleconference for any staff, faculty, their families, and retirees. This is a free service for USC employees.

Call us 24/7 at 213-821-0800 to find out more about counseling and other services.

https://employees.usc.edu/work-family-life/

Office of Campus Wellbeing and Education

CWE focuses on the environment, culture, and systems so all members of the USC community can thrive. Our clinical and organizational psychologists consult privately with individuals, campus groups, departments and schools on issues ranging from building trust, healing from transgressions, and preventing burnout to improving engagement, communicating effectively, and adapting to change. We listen, learn with you, and provide research-backed recommendations and evaluations of new ways to work together more collaboratively, purposefully and productively.

https://cwe.usc.edu/ or 213-740-0411
Resources

USC Campus Support and Intervention (CSI) https://campussupport.usc.edu/ assists faculty, staff, and students in resolving complex personal, academic, and financial issues, providing useful information and referring to the proper campus resources.

Threat Assessment and Management at 213-740-0243 or https://cwci.usc.edu/threat-assessment/ provide proactive collaborative oversight and support in the identification, assessment and management of threats and/or threatening behavior that may lead to acts of targeted violence.

Campus Ombuds at 323-442-0383 (HSC) and 213-821-9556 (UPC). https://ombuds.usc.edu/ is a safe and confidential place to share your USC-related issues and explore options or paths to manage your concerns.

USC Occupational Faculty Practice for Lifestyle Redesign at 323-442-2850 or chan.usc.edu/patient-care/faculty-practice/about which helps faculty, staff, and students develop healthy life habits and stress management.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion https://diversity.usc.edu/messages/ which provides information on DEI initiatives at the university.

The Office for Equity, Equal Opportunity, and Title IX at (213) 740-5086 or https://eeotix.usc.edu/ responds to complaints of discrimination and harassment based on protected characteristics; sexual harassment, sexual assault, and sexual misconduct; and retaliation for making a complaint, for participating in the OED process, or for protesting the alleged discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual misconduct, or retaliation (collectively, “prohibited conduct”).